*Success as an ACN IBO is not guaranteed; rather it is influenced by an individual's specific effort. Compensation is only earned when products and services are sold. IBO's can earn more or less based on generated sales. Refer to the ACN compensation plan in ACN's Back Office for full details on the bonuses and commissions paid. Estimated compensation ranges used in this presentation were determined based on hypothetical calculations using expected generated sales as they related to the earned positions displayed.
